

Please do not allow changes to the no call list regulations now servicing Wisconsin. The current program is wonderful and we don't welcome undermining its effectiveness by allowing certain marketers to "chip away" by gaining access under some lame guise of customer relatedness. The ban should also apply to charitable organizations seeking donations. They're a pain as well.